

North-Wright Airways is looking for Rotational Aircraft Maintenance Engineers

Position:

Full time, rotational aircraft maintenance engineer based in Norman Wells, Northwest Territories!

Qualifications:

- Proven safety record and excellent problem-solving skills
- Must possess Transport Canada M1 or M2 License
- Must be legally able to work in Canada
- Able to work on flexible hours
- Experience with aircraft type, BE02, DHC6, C206, C207, and C208 an asset

Benefits:

- Salary $35/h to $60/h Commensurate with Experience
- Extensive Employee Health, Dental, and Insurance Package
- Free Freight Allocation
- Company Provided Accommodation
- Canadian North Interline Discount
- Flexible Schedule based on preference
  - Three weeks on, three weeks off
  - Two months on, one month off
  - Four weeks on, four weeks off.(or other schedule offerings would be entertained but not guaranteed)

Interested applicants may submit their resume to hr@north-wrightairways.com.

The North is one of the last places in Canada where you can experience true wilderness. We have located 145 km (90 miles) south of the Arctic Circle in the heart of the Sahtu Region. North-Wright Airways is the Sahtu Region's premier air service. Join North-Wright, fly over vast and beautiful landscapes and terrain, and meet people who will last in your memory for life.